- On 25 August LIAO Chin-p'ing (廖金平), vice magistrate of Shangch'eng (115-26, 31-51), and 60 public security troops arrived in Mutzut'ien (115-23, 31-14) to supervise a liquidation meeting. About 100 guerrillas, disguised as farmers, were led to the meeting by HSU Hung-liang (徐鴻亮), and they disrupted the meeting by assassinating CHOU Ming-hsi (周銘西), a political worker, and eight Communist soldiers. Seventeen men were held by the Communists at the hsien government were also released by them.
- On 27 August LEI Yun-sheng (雷蘊生) and 85 plain-clothed men entered Shuangliushu (雙柳樹), Shangch'eng, and attacked a Communist warehouse, capturing clothing and other materials. Four Communist soldiers were killed and two rifles captured.
- On 7 September a guerrilla unit commanded by LI Hsiu-lin (李秀林) attacked Communist troops who were sent to collect autumn taxes and foodstuffs at Paohsin (包信) by CHANG Fu-sheng (張復生), magistrate of Hsihsien (114-16, 32-23). The guerrillas killed four Communists and captured 3 rifles and 150 rounds of ammunition.
- Communist authorities in western Fukien have been tightening up on the requisition of foodstuffs at Shanghang (116-27, 25-02), Yungting (116-46, 24-50), Ch'angting (116-20, 25-52), Lungyen (117-04, 25-12), and Wup'ing (116-04, 25-12). Many of the farmers who are unable to meet the Communist requisition have been arrested and punished. On 12 August the 1 Sub-Column under LAN Yung-mo (藍永謨) received information that Communist food collectors and 30 public security troops had disembarked from a boat at Nanshetu (南蛇渡) on the Ting (汀) River. In the attack which followed, the guerrillas sank the boat and killed five soldiers who were guarding it. Two guerrillas were killed in the action.

5. Since mid-August close liaison has been established by LAN Yung-mo and guerrillas under the command of CHUNG Yung (鍾勇) in the Chiaoling (116-10, 24-40) area. On 17 August the guerrillas captured 1 rifle, 1 pistol, and 50 rounds of ammunition from raids in Meih sien and Chiaoling.
6. The 3 Sub-Column, Kwangtung-Fukien Border Column, under CH'EN T'ien-jung (陳天榮) has been isolated by Chinese Communists in the Huangshachao (黃沙挑) area since June. They have plundered Communist food depots and have attacked Communist officials in the area. On 11 August the sub-column was attacked by 150 Communist troops near Shapuhsiang (沙布鄉) and lost 13 rifles and 300 rounds of ammunition. Twenty-one guerrillas were killed and 13 wounded. The sub-column is now in hiding.
7. The Chaochou-Swato Sub-Column led by YANG Chi-min (楊清民) has constantly raided Communist vessels on the coast between Nanp'eng (117-12, 23-18) and Nanao (117-04, 23-26). The fishermen in the area, although organized by the Communists, are still in contact with the guerrillas and are supplying them with information on Communist troops movements.
8. In mid-August the Han River Column on Nanp'eng Island recruited 32 men for training and has assigned them to its sub-columns. A guerrilla unit under YANG Chi-min has expanded its operations in the Fenghuangshan (鳳凰山) area. The unit has increased its strength and its organization work in villages. The unit will attempt to instigate revolts among local militia corps and will endeavor to contact anti-Communist forces in the mountains north of Chaochou and Swatow. A unit composed of local bandits and rascals, who were once members of a local militia unit, is reported in this area. These men were purged by the Communists and after escaping to the mountains have conducted the following:
 - a. Captured two Soviet advisers at Ts'unglung (葱隴) on 1 September.
 - b. Demolished the highway between Lihu (鯤湖) and Liusha (流沙), and the T'aiho bridge (太和) near Ch'aoyang (116-35, 23-17) in late August.
 - c. Attacked a Communist taxation team of 14 members at Hsich'ang (114-35, 23-58) on 4 September. Eleven Communists were killed and three captured.
9. In early June a sub-column of the Han River Column under CHUNG Kuo-hsin (鍾國欣) was attacked by 100 public security troops while it was moving from the vicinity of Chiaoling to Shihfeng (石峯) and Chingyu (經好) in P'ingyuan (115-54, 24-51). In a two-hour battle, the 1 and 2 Battalions escaped from a Communist trap and withdrew to the mountains near Tachuyu (大埔圩). The 3 Battalion was surrounded and only five men escaped; 40 men including the battalion commander were killed, and 11 men captured. In addition, the guerrillas lost 1 light machine gun, 47 rifles, 47 pistols, and 500 rounds of ammunition.

10. Since 8 September guerrillas under CHANG Hsin-ting (張新廷) have been besieged by 300 Communist troops of the Shanghang Public Security Battalion and local militia troops at Haokeng (豪坑). CHANG Fu-hua (張福華), a battalion commander, LIU Shih-ch'ing (劉時清), and ten guerrillas have been killed in battle. CHANG Hsin-ting has retreated with the unit to the Chiuchou (九洲) and Puta (埔大) mountains. The guerrillas have lost 1 light machine gun, 5 rifles, 2 pistols, and 100 rounds of ammunition.
11. In mid-September political workers of a guerrilla unit commanded by WU K'o-keng (吳克坑) were sent to Kut'ien (古田) and Ch'enshui (沉水) for propaganda work. They have established intimate relations with the local residents and are using them to gather reports on Communist troops movements.
